Mrs. Lucy Scott Smith

Mrs. Lucy Scott Smith, 91, a resident of Rockville, for the past 59 years, died Tuesday at her home at 108 Forest avenue. Mrs. Smith had been failing since she suffered a broken hip six years ago.

Mrs. Smith came to Washington from her native New Orleans when she was married to Edwin Smith, a Coast and Geodetic Survey astronomer, 63 years ago. Mr. Smith died in 1912.

After a few years' residence in Washington, Mrs. Smith moved out to Rockville and had lived there ever since. She was the mother of Harold C. Smith, a prominent Rockville attorney. Another one of her five sons was killed in World War I.
